GLADIOLUS

OUTSTANDING VARIETIES

LEADING LADY, Tall soft creamy white. Many open blooms, on long flower head. Best in this color class.

OKLAHOMA, A favorite smoky. Delightful blend of lavender and gray, shading to cream throat.

PICARDY, Most widely know of all gladiolus. Not new, but still one of the best salmon pinks.

PURPLE SUPREME, Rich deep purple with a silken sheen.

RED CHARM, Bright crimson red. Long flower head with many open blooms. Tops in this color.

VALERIA, Unusual shade of light scarlet red, with a slight suggestion of pink. Splendid cut flower.

Any of these six varieties: 3 for 35c;

12 for $1.25, 50 for $4.75

ABU HASSAN, Handsome, deep violet blue. Buds almost black.

BLACK OPAL, Lustrous dark red self.

ELIZABETH THE QUEEN, Beautiful clear lavender mauve with darker lines in throat. Fine cut flower.

EVANGELINE, One of the best of all the light pinks. Large blooms, slightly ruffled. Many open, on long spike.

FLORENCE NIGHTINGALE, Finest white. Large well placed pure white blooms on long straight flower head. Vigorous grower.

FRIENDSHIP, Frosty pink, shading to a waxy white throat. Attractive wide open florets have a lacy ruffling on the edges.

GREEN LIGHT, Chartreuse (greenish yellow). Especially popular for flower arrangements.

LIPSTICK, Lovely shell pink with a bright rose red blotch in throat. Florets nicely ruffled.

ORANGE GOLD, Deep orange with golden throat. Very popular.

RAVEL, Best of all the light blues. Largest, most vigorous and most popular variety in this color.

SPIC AND SPAN, Gracefully ruffled deep pink. So popular it is replacing its parent, Picardy, in the cut flower market.

SPOTLIGHT, Fine deep yellow with a dash of red in the throat. Large slightly waved florets.

PATROL, Blending of apricot and light orange, with yellow throat. A consistent prize winner.

STRAWBERRY PEACH, Beautifully ruffled orange pink, with soft scarlet blotch and feathering in throat. Tall straight stems, 6 to 8 open blooms. Fine cut flower, buds open to the tip, when cut. Salbach introduction.

Any of the above fourteen varieties: 3 of one kind 40c;

12 of one kind for $1.35; 50 of one kind $5.00

RECENT INTRODUCTIONS

ANDRENA, Delicate pastel pink with yellow throat. Florets are nicely ruffled and have a satiny sheen.
each 25c; 3 for 65c

GOLD, Perfectly formed deep yellow self. Ruffled florets that open to the tip when cut. Best in this color class.
each 25c; 3 for 65c

MRS. R. G. ERREY, Stunning deep red, originated in Australia. Long spike with many open blooms. Consistent prize winner.
3 for 45c; 12 for $1.50

NOWETA ROSE, Sparkling lavender rose of exceptional size and beauty. Opens 12 to 15 well placed florets on long flower head. One of the finest and most popular new variety.
3 for 45c; 12 for $1.50

POINSETTIA, An outstanding new variety introduced in 1952. Slightly ruffled florets of bright scarlet red, of good size and fine form. Ranks as one of the best reds.

DAHLIA SEED

We have grown dahlia seed for over twenty years, and each year we select the finest seed from our gardens. Plants from this seed bloom the first year, and produce tubers that can be planted the next season.

Customers write to us each year, telling us what a thrill they get out of watching these come into bloom. Some of these dahlias have been outstanding enough to be named and introduced as new varieties.

LARGE FLOWERING DAHLIA SEED. Gathered from the finest varieties and best seed parents.

Packet 50 seeds $1.50; packet 100 seeds $2.50

MINIATURE DAHLIA SEED. Miniature dahlias are from 2 1/2 to 3 1/2 inches in diameter and are mostly from the cactus type. Especially fine for use in flower arrangements. Packet (100 seeds)25c
